SUVERIG SAILS FOR

The S. S. Suveric sails tomorrow for San Francisc to discharge her carto of 9000 tons of cement. From San Francisco she is to go to Seattle to discharge the remainder of the cargo. onsisting of general merchandise. The Suveric has the distinction of being the largest tramp steamship affont. She has a carrying capacity of 12,000 and a register of 4401 tons. She was launched last June, being built by Russell of Port Glasgow and by Rowan of Glasgow. She engined was built especially for the carrying of troops in the Japanese-Russian war, but was not completed in time to b used for that purpose. She is particularly well fitted for the transportation of immigrants, there being plenty of room for hundreds of bunks. She carries a large number of boats, and during the recent voyage many of the male immigrants preferred to sleep in these rather than below.

'The Suveric belongs to the Bank line, which has besides her 18 steamers and 31 sailing vessels, most of hem engaged in the carrying trade in the Orient. One of the sailing vessels, the Trongate, came to Honolulu about three years ago with a cargo of salt

Although yesterday was Sunday and the first day in port, both men and officers got only salt meat, very much to their indignation. It was on account of an oversight on the part of the steward, who forgot to order fresh meat the da before.

Second Engineer James O. R. R. Campbell enjoys the distinction having seven medals for saving life and three for extinguishing fires. Most of them were won while he was chief engineer in the Holyhead Mail boats.
